St. Clair County Great Start Collaborative Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in the Great Start Collaborative (GSC). The St. Clair County Great Start Collaborative is a local partnership of parents, community leaders, business owners, charitable and faith based organizations, health and human service agencies, and educators that come together for the purpose of:

- Promoting awareness and advocating for early childhood issues
- Address factors that influence school readiness
- Planning and coordinating community services
- Work to improve the physical, social, emotional, educational and developmental well-being of our youngest children.

Please complete the following information and submit to Riley Alley, Great Start Collaborative Director, for GSC membership consideration. The St. Clair County Great Start Collaborative Executive Committee will review the application at their scheduled meeting.

Thank you,
